

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

“The more we choose not to talk about Domestic Violence, the more we shy away from the issue, the more we lose”

‘Pratibha-The women cell’ at Shri Ramswaroop Memorial University (SRMU), organized an interactive session on Domestic Violence and Sexual Harassment of Women at workplace on 27th September 2017. The keynote speaker was Ms Sadhna Singh, Deputy SP, Mahila Samman Prakoshtha, Lucknow. She informed the female faculty and staff members of SRMU about the impact of domestic violence on families and urged the audience to be vocal about it. Ms Sadhna was assisted by Ms Swarnima Singh, counselor with Mahila Samman Prakoshtha who explained in detail about the domestic violence law, facts and measures. Ms Nilofer, counselor with Mahila Samman Prakostha briefed the ladies about Sexual Harassment at workplace and how to overcome such issues.

Presence of Deputy SP, 1090, Ms Babita Singh took the session to another level. She informed that the helpline has been launched with the purpose of providing effective help to girls and women who become victims of any antisocial behavior like eve-teasing, harassment, disrespect, or any other form of violence. The mission of Women Powerline is to bring a revolutionary change in controlling crimes against women and creating a society where women can protest against harassment and molestation with courage.

All the distinguished guest were honored by Pro Chancellor Shri Ramswaroop Memorial University, Ms Pooja Agrawal who thanked all the esteemed guests for taking out time and sharing such valuable information to the female faculty and staff members of SRMU.
