

Department of Humanities of Social Sciences

1. Organised the First International Conference on 18th - 19th February, 2017. This was in association with the University of Rome Tor Vergata, Italy. In this academia from 9 countries took part and around 400 papers were presented. The theme of the conference was “The Cultures of New India” Dr. Shashi Tharoor was the chief guest for the event.
2. Organised Bharat Yatra on 7th Oct, 2017. The University hosted the Nobel Peace laureate Shri Kailash Satharhi, who was on his nation wide campaign to fight against child labour and child exploitation. The event witnessed the presence of around three thousand students, research scholars, academicians, social activists from across India.
3. Is organising an International Literary Festival on 7th - 8th April, 2018 in collaboration with Kitaab Singapore. This will witness an array of national and international writers, poets and journalists in English, Hindi and Urdu. From talks with esteemed authors and launch of Short Films to Short Story Competition, our literary fest will be full of intellectual engagements. The theme of the fest. “Micro-Literature in the age of social media”. For further information please refer to our website litfest.srmu.ac.in

