This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) signifies a mutual desire to promote intercultural, educational, scientific, and technological cooperation between the University for Business and Technology (UBT), Kosovo, and Shri Ramswaroop Memorial University (SRMU) Barabanki, India.

AREAS OF COLLABORATION

The cooperation between the two institutions shall include, but not be limited to, the following areas, subject to mutual consent:

1. Jointly conducting conferences, research publications, faculty development programs, seminars, and expert lectures in both online and offline modes.
2. Student exchange programs for training, internships, and semester exchange programs.
3. Joint collaboration on research projects, patents, publications, journals, and books.
4. Short-term academic exchanges involving faculties and students from both universities.
5. Conducting foreign language courses at both institutions.
6. Sharing of scientific information in areas of mutual interest.
7. Any other area mutually agreed upon by both universities.

IMPLEMENTATION

Details concerning specific activities, including student and faculty exchanges, research collaborations, and other cooperative projects, will be negotiated separately in writing by both parties before initiation.

DURATION AND AMENDMENT

This MoU will be effective from the date of signature and remain valid for five years, subject to review and renewal by mutual consent. Amendments to this MoU may be made through mutual written consent.

TERMINATION

Either institution may terminate this MoU with a six-month written notice. However, obligations to ongoing collaborative activities, especially related to accepted exchange students, will be honored until completion.

In witness whereof, the representatives of both institutions have executed this Memorandum of Understanding in two original copies, both in English and equally authentic.
