

Lyngdoh Committee Report recommends certain aspects in election of student body in Universities. SRMU has adapted an indirect method of election to form an independent University Student Senate. Senate members in association with University authorities shall act to improve the overall academic ambience, general discipline amongst students and campus life.